You know they'll kill him if he leaves office.
I don't believe he wants to risk America dying and risk himself dying.

This election is life or death for America and the Constitution. They will try Trump on some kind of charges, just to keep him from coming back in 2024, or any other independent for that matter. This is their Reich now, and they intend to stay in power for decades. They have to be derailed before they get comfortably seated.

They are gonna kill us too, unless they enslave us.
Your choice.
